Wine – Whites by the Glass

Johner Sauvignon Blanc, Martinborough 10 / 48

A love expression of a local, juicy, fruity Sav that ticks all the boxes. Juicy apple & peach make this drop the perfect moreish sipper.

Grava Sauvignon Blanc, Martinborough 11 / 53

Refined & smooth with white peach notes & a lingering finish. A lovely showcase of a New Zealand Sav that isn't from Malborough but is all the more spectacular for it.

Urlar Pinot Gris, Gladstone 10 / 48

Light & bright with rich honey notes & a dry finish. It features a satisfying texture from a small portion of grapes which were left on the skins. Perfect to cut through a rich pork belly.

Margrain Chenin Blanc, Martinborough 12 / 58

A really interesting grape; not quite the acid of a Sav, nor the cream of a Chardonnay & not quite the sweetness of a Riesling but rather a whole interesting journey of it's own with a lovely, clean finish. Really worth a try.

Grava Riesling, Martinborough 11 / 53

Beautifully soft & subtly sweet. This drop shows a beautiful refinement – it is not all sugar and acid, there are subtle nectarine notes & a long, lingering finish.

Collaboration "Aurulent" Chardonnay, Hawkes Bay 12 / 58

A real gem from Hawkes Bay which boasts lovely butterscotch & pineapple notes with gorgeous light French oak to give it what we think is a near perfect balance of acidity & creaminess.

Wine – Whites by the Bottle

We may only have one or two of these & once they're gone they may not be back!

Urlar Sauvignon Blanc, Gladstone 50

Sharp gooseberry & citrus make this a local Sav that can really stand up to its Marlborough counterparts while also showing refinement with a great mineral texture.

On Giants Shoulders Pinot Gris, Martinborough 60

Creamy yet crisp, with a dry finish & lots of subtle stone fruit make this endlessly intriguing Pinot Gris perfect with food & well worth the leap of faith!

Johner Viognier, Gladstone 60

Gorgeous aromatics bring notes of apricot, spice and jasmine. A creamy texture with a dry finish.

Margrain Riesling, Martinborough 55

Bright citrus & floral flavours with a crisp & tingly finish that reminds us of summer mornings.

Hopes Grove Chardonnay, Hawkes Bay 65

Wonderfully complex, creamy & bold. Strongly oaked but with beautiful balance.

Sweet cherries & plums with a hint of vanilla make this a delightful rich Pinot Noir with soft tannins.

Toño Tempranillo, Hawkes Bay 12 / 85
Rich blackberry and juicy aromas mingle with soft tannins & gentle oak. You'd be forgiven for thinking you were sipping away in Madrid even though this drop is produced in Hawkes Bay!

Hopes Grove Syrah, Hawkes Bay 14 / 68
Juicy plums, black pepper & roasted spices all combine in this beautiful Syrah with bold tannins & a satisfying finish. A well suited match to our twice cooked pork belly!
